The Portable Glass
Fall 2015
Educational Caterer

Our Story

The Portable Glass is the Capstone stone project of owner and operator of The Portable Glass who made it out of a want to educate more people on the products that they are using every day. With a strong will to also support local businesses with education on their product, to promote their products.

What We Do

The Portable Glass is an Educational Caterer that offers classes on food pairings with beer, wine, and hard ciders from the Champlain Valley areas of New York and Vermont show casing those area's beverages.

The Portable Glass Caters too:

- Hotels
- Bed and Breakfasts
- Ski Resorts
- Corporate Functions
- Private Functions
- Culinary Class Establishments

The Portable Glass is bookable for many variations of private functions and can do any variations on classes that are offered.

Who We Are

- We Promote Local Products
- Education on Beer, Wine, and Hard Cider
- Having an enjoyable and fun learning atmosphere
- Offering the best of each product
- Making sure all questions are answered

Community Matters To Us.

- The Portable Glass is going to be involved in community projects in Burlington.
- As well as have a stand at the farmers market where The Portable Glass will sell local alcohols.
